Our “full-service” approach and our positioning as a large independent German law firm result in expansion – growth that benefits our clients. HEUKINGs philosophy is interesting both for young lawyers, who very early on play a role in independent projects, as well as for experienced and successful lawyers, whom we offer to join the partnership.

The firm thus has a high number of business-minded partners on an equal footing, which is one reason for our stability. This guarantees consistent, optimum advice for our clients and is the foundation of our expansion.

HEUKING is represented with eight offices in the major economic centers in Germany.
