Our expertise

Our expertise particularly includes financing rounds, venture debt, secondary and exit transactions, the conclusion of convertible loan agreements, and the implementation of equity participation programs (ESOP, VSOP, § 19a Income Tax Act, hurdle shares). We combine comprehensive legal and tax advice with specific industry expertise.

Our clients

Our clients include VC firms and funds, institutional and strategic investors, family offices, business angels, venture builders and studios, startups, growth companies and scale-ups, as well as founders.

These are active in a wide range of sectors. For example we advise on transactions in the areas of e-commerce, energy transition, FinTech, food, health, Internet of Things, logistics, PropTech, software, and the travel industry.

Our advice

We offer innovative and customized advice for the entire investment cycle, from company formation through the various growth phases to the exit, including IPOs and other capital market transactions.

In the area of fund structuring, we also advise fund managers, initiators, and investors on all corporate and tax law, as well as regulatory aspects related to the structuring and establishment of funds.

Thanks to our interdisciplinary advisory approach, our clients can draw on the full range of our firm's industry and professional expertise: In addition to corporate and tax law advice, we offer comprehensive advice on legal issues such as IT and data protection law, trademark, patent, and licensing law, state aid law, employment law, and distribution law. Our in house technical experts handle the registration of trademarks, designs and patents.

We also regularly advise our clients on issues relating to regulatory law and capital markets law.

If necessary, we rely on our proven network of independent partner law firms in cross-border matters.

Our VC experts are excellently connected in the venture capital ecosystem.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact our VC experts.
